Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 10, 2023, CION Investment Corporation (“CION”) issued approximately $33.7 million in aggregate principal amount of its additional Series A Unsecured Notes due 2026 (the “Additional Notes”) to institutional investors in Israel. The Additional Notes were issued pursuant to the Deed of Trust dated as of February 20, 2023 (the “Deed of Trust”) with Mishmeret Trust Company Ltd., as trustee, and were issued by way of expanding, and have the same terms and conditions as, the existing Series A Unsecured Notes due 2026 that were issued by CION on February 28, 2023. After the deduction of fees and other offering expenses, CION received net proceeds of approximately $32.3 million, which CION intends to use to make investments in portfolio companies in accordance with its investment objectives and for working capital and general corporate purposes. The Additional Notes are rated A1.il by Midroog Ltd., an affiliate of Moody’s, and commenced trading on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange Ltd. on October 10, 2023.

The Additional Notes will mature on August 31, 2026 and may be redeemed in whole or in part at CION’s option at par plus a “make-whole” premium, if applicable, as set forth in the Deed of Trust. The Additional Notes bear interest at a floating rate equal to the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”) plus a credit spread of 3.82% per year, which will be paid quarterly on February 28, May 31, August 31, and November 30 of each year, commencing on November 30, 2023. The Additional Notes are CION’s general unsecured obligations that rank senior in right of payment to all of CION’s existing and future indebtedness that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Additional Notes, rank pari passu with all existing and future unsecured unsubordinated indebtedness issued by CION, rank effectively junior to any of CION’s secured indebtedness (including unsecured indebtedness that CION later secures) to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness, and rank structurally junior to all existing and future indebtedness (including trade payables) incurred by CION’s subsidiaries, financing vehicles or similar facilities.

The Deed of Trust contains other terms and conditions, including, without limitation, affirmative and negative covenants such as (i) information reporting, (ii) maintenance of CION’s status as a business development company within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (iii) minimum shareholders’ equity of $525 million, (iv) a minimum asset coverage ratio of not less than 150%, and (v) an unencumbered asset coverage ratio of 1.25 to 1.00. In addition, the Deed of Trust contains customary events of default with customary cure and notice periods, including, without limitation, nonpayment, incorrect representation in any material respect, breach of covenant, cross-default under other indebtedness of CION in an outstanding aggregate principal amount of at least $50,000,000, certain judgments and orders, and certain events of bankruptcy.

The Additional Notes were sold in an offshore transaction to certain non-U.S. persons outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Additional Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements.

This offering allows us to remain naturally hedged with our predominantly floating rate investment portfolio and allows us to attractively invest in all interest rate environments without having to speculate on the timing, sizing, and direction of future actions of the Federal Reserve.
